Object

The owner of the web is the Residential Real Estate Spanish Property Pricing Panel. The panel is a project founded by six companies: Asociación Hipotecaria Española, la Asociación de Promotores Inmobiliarios de Madrid (ASPRIMA), el Colegio de Registradores de la Propiedad y Mercantiles de España (CORPME), idealista.com, Planner Exhibitions, S.L. and ST Sociedad de Tasación, S.A.

Additionally other entities have joined the panel as panelists and collaborators (providing data) and others such as INE (Spanish Statistics Institute) and Ministerio de Fomento (Ministry of Public Works) allowing access to their data.

The Residential Real Estate Spanish Property Pricing Panel has been created due to the need of presenting in a common space the different studies in Residential Real Estate Prices which are distributed periodically in Spain. The aim of the promoters of this project is to offer in a centralized manner, through the coordination of the website, the information which each of the organizations publish on their own channels

General Information and terms of use of the web site

The Residential Real Estate Spanish Property Pricing Panel gathers the information which is developed and distributed by different public and private organizations, as well as associations linked to the spanish real estate market. The studies each organization does, the regularity of the reports, scope of application and methodology used, are clearly explained, in an easy and transparent way with the aim that any user can understand the data and compare the information.
